Dear Prayer Supporter,

Thank you for praying for the work here in Edinburgh. We thank God for those who've taken tracts and/or emailed comments on sermons or hymn histories. For over 2 decades our next-door neighbors seemed uninterested in spiritual things, but recently through some various conversations, they took a pamphlet on how to seek and find the Lord. When we saw them again the wife said she'd read it, and she also accepted a hard copy of a Sunday sermon. Their softening is a blessing to witness. Please pray for this couple's salvation.

Another one emailed this comment after reading a recent sermon: "It's so easy to deceive yourself that you are not slipping into sinful habits." And, a church mother recently emailed to request prayer for her teen who returns to public school on Aug. 11. And several of our church people are praying for unsaved loved ones. Will you join with us in this request?

Mark also requests prayer for the salvation of Donald who walks his dog by our home several times a week and often stops to talk. He is on dialysis and knows he is on borrowed time.

We remain busy with preparing Bible studies, keeping in touch with church folks and contacts, and seeking Gospel opportunities on walks. Edinburgh is opening up somewhat after the lockdown, so we are no longer doing food shops and drops. But some places in Scotland are under review (like Aberdeen) due to a recent outbreak of covid. We still must mask and social distance, and we pray and seek wisdom about when to worship in the church building again, as several of our people are elderly and high risk. But it's good to know the Lord has His work moving along in His time and way—even in these changing times.

Thank you so much for your prayers, support, and vision for foreign missions. It is greatly appreciated. May we all make the most of each day for life is short and eternity is long. "For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time and then vanisheth away" (James 4:14).

Gratefully yours in Christ's service,

Mark and Joanne Landon
