Dear Praying Friend,

Psalm 103 says “Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless His holy name.” Six times in this psalm we are told to bless the Lord, not just for all he does for us, but for Who he is. When we do this, all those fears or challenges of life seem to evaporate as we re-focus on our merciful Father, who knows all His workers in all places (verses 21 -22).

We want to thank you for your prayers and/or support for the Gospel ministry here.

Praises include:

1. A good turnout for the Easter services and a blessed time at a recent singspiration.
2. A new one-on-one Bible study with a former contact. Pray for this study and for the unsaved spouse.
3. A former Bible club child (now an adult) who recently looked Mark up. Pray that this young man might turn to Christ and obey Him.

Prayer Focus:

1. Recently a church lady moved farther away. Pray for her and others to remain faithful and obedient to the Lord.
2. For those met in the tract distribution, nursing home outreach, or personal contacts: that hearts and minds will be open to the truth and turn to Christ.
3. For wisdom, health, and provision to serve most effectively.
4. For upcoming visitors, an unspoken request, and some maintenance work at the church.

May the Lord bless you for your part in this work. Your vision for missions and intercession are much appreciated.

Gratefully yours for Scotland,

Mark and Joanne Landon
